Col: Dr P. Blair Jr

Dear Sir

In The month of June last. I was instructed by Genl Lyon then in Command of the Western Dept. to go to Lexington as Lieut Col: of the Reserve Corps, 5th Regt. and to fortify the place. afterwards Col: Stifel took command as Col: of the Regt. and we proceeded to carry out the orders of Genl Lyon.

About the same time I received authority from him to raise a new Regiment, and after continuing some time with Col: Stifel, I deemed this the better course for reasons which it is needless now to mention.

Deeming it better for the interests of the government, I commenced during the latter part of July and the first of August to raise this Regiment for three years service

Prior to the time of my leaving Lexington, I had raised four companies, and there were others in process of completion. At the time of leaving there it was deemed most important both by Col^o Stifel and myself as also by the prominent citizens of the place, that a force should be left there. and the only force which could be persuaded to remain, was the portion of my Regiment already recruited. Their struggles and success in holding the place against a large and overwhelming force is already known to yourself and to the people of Missouri. On arriving at St Louis, in as much as Genl Lyon was dead, I deemed it important to obtain additional authority from Genl Fremont, which I accordingly did, and set to work by appointing recruiting agents here, but had not progressed far, before hearing of the condition of my men at Lexington, I repaired at once to Jefferson City and obtained Col: Marshall, 8th Iowa Command as a reinforcement for that place. On arriving there, the rebel force dispersed and the garrison was relieved. and I here take occasion to say that to Col: Graham's boldness and soldierly conduct, all the credit is due for holding possession of Lexington.

Col: Marshall on his arrival took command of the post. The day following Col: Peabody arrived with his Regiment from D. Co. Having heard of a large Rebel force at Warrensburg, the two Regts of Col: Marshall and Peabody marched out in that direction. I presented to those officers a request to return with my force to St. Louis, for the purpose of having my men drawn into camps and to join my other Companies already recruited in the City. but my request was objected to for the reason that they desired me to remain and hold the post at Lexington, while they marched on Warrensburg. and I consented to remain for that specific duty. On arriving in the night of Warrensburg, it was ascertained that the main Rebel Army under Price, numbering some 15,000. were rapidly approaching, and they deemed it most prudent to retreat on Lexington, already reinforced by the arrival of Col: Mulligan's Irish brigade - Col: Mulligan then took command of the entire force as oldest in Commission. To him I also stated my wishes in regard to my command, but at the same time acquiesced in his desire that my force should remain which I accordingly did -

Respectfully referred to the Adjutant Genl who will please report how Col White & his men can be paid for the services rendered by them to the Government.

Thomas J. Scott

Waikiki, Oahu, Sept 21, 1864
Nov 8, 1864
Respectfully referred to the Hon.
Secy of War
of the U.S. who will have these men mustered in to the service from the date they commenced to serve, & discharged upon the receipt of pay by the Adjutant Genl.

On account of this willingness on my part to remain and share the fate of those who defended that garrison, thus failing to have my men sworn into the service regularly. I learn now to my deep mortification and sorrow, that the Government refuses to recognise our services, and that we have men who perilled their lives in defence of the post, are to receive no pay for their services. In consequence of the disaster at Lexington my Regt was of course disbanded. My soldiers are driven away from their homes, without money, without clothes, and many of them leaving their families behind them in a condition of helpless destitution, every thing they had, being ruthlessly destroyed by the Rebel army of Bragg.

Disabled as I have every reason to believe ~~from~~ ~~the~~ for the remainder of my life, from wounds received in the defense of Lexington all I ask as a simple act of Justice from the Government, is that I shall be recognized as Col. of the 14th Regt Mo volunteers, and that the brave and suffering soldiers in my command receive compensation for the service faithfully rendered in defense of that Post. I am most respectfully,

Robert White
Col. 14th Regt

The record of the allowances made by the Hawkins Taylor Commission appointed under the Joint Resolutions of Congress of July 12, 1862, and February 16, 1863, on file in this office, shows that allowances were made as actual military service rendered the United States on the claims of the following named men of Captain Cook's Independent Company, Decota Missouri Home Guard, (which company appears to have been organized in Jefferson County) as follows: William Haverstick, private, 8 months for services between June 19, 1861, and September 19, 1861. The following remark appears opposite his name: "Made 2d lieutenant July 18, 1861."

Frederick Hagener, private, "8 months" for services between "July 12, 1861, and September 19, 1861."

Major General Hallack

Commanding Dept. of Missouri

Sir. on the 15th day of July 1861 I entered the service of the U.S. as Captain of Company E in the 2nd Regt Mo Inf. and served as such until the 7th day of October 1861. The 2nd Regt Mo Inf. was organized by an order from Gen. N. Lyon - to Mr. Bishop who authorized Samuel M. Wirt of Adams County Missouri to administer the oath to the members and officers of the Company of which I was Captain. I was sworn by said Wirt - he was Clerk of the Circuit Court of Adams County. There is a muster roll on file in this department.

On the 7th day of October 1861 the 2nd Regt Mo Inf. was reorganized and entered the service of the U.S. as the 2nd Regt Mo Inf. Col Woodward was in command of the Regt. B. B. King acted as Lt. Col & I acted as Major of the Regt. A part of the Regt. was mustered into the service by Capt Wood of the U.S. Army - I was not mustered. nor do I believe any of the field or staff officers were - I served as Major of the Regt. until ~~the~~ about the 22nd day of January 1862.

About the 22nd of Jan. 1862, an order was made consolidating the 1st Regt Mo Inf. & the 2nd Regt Mo Inf. and Col J. Moore Commissioned Col of the regiment formed by the consolidation. Col Woodward Lt Col & B. B. King, Major - the regiment so formed is denominated the 21st Regt Mo Inf.

The Officer, Lt. Moore, who mustered the men and officers for consolidation stated that he was not authorized by his instructions to muster out the staff officers who were displaced by the Consolidation - Major Sullivan, the paymaster, who was present for the purpose of paying the troops stated that he was instructed to pay the soldiers & officers of the 21st Regt. and as I was not of the regt. he could not pay me for any service I had rendered -

You will discover by the copies of certificates herewith inclosed that I have faithfully discharged my duty as an officer -

I have expended a considerable sum of money to supply the necessities of the men under my command and so far have not received a dollar -

Will you make such orders as are necessary to enable me to receive payment for my services as capt. from 15th of July to the 7th of Oct. 1861 - and as Major from the 7th of Oct 1861 to 22nd of January 1862 -

Very Respectfully
Yours obt. Servt.

izing the new Regiment a number of officers were necessarily thrown out, of which these gentlemen state he is one. They claim to have served for some time under their former imperfect & disorganized organization.

Some general arrange-ment to embrace all so thrown out of the new organization of Morse, Regiment is respectfully suggested. I presume some competent officer of experience should be ordered to muster all in the same cate-gory - in & out - of the U. S. Service, of those according to the claims they can establish as having been in it before the Pay Dept. is authorized to act.

Respectfully submitted
T. B. Andrews
